NOMINATION HEARING

Thursday, September 12, 2024

U.S. Senate

Committee on Armed Services

Washington, D.C.

The committee met, pursuant to notice, at 9:29 a.m. in Room SH-216, Hart Senate Office Building, Hon. Jack Reed, chairman of the committee, presiding.

Committee Members Present: Senators Reed [presiding], Shaheen, Gillibrand, Blumenthal, Kaine, King, Peters, Kelly, Wicker, Fischer, Cotton, Sullivan, Cramer, Scott, Tuberville, Budd, and Schmitt.

1           OPENING STATEMENT OF HON. JACK REED, U.S. SENATOR FROM 2 RHODE ISLAND

3           Chairman Reed: The hearing will come to order. Good 4 morning. The Committee meets today to consider the 5 nomination of Lieutenant General Steven Nordhaus for 6 promotion to General and to be the chief of the National 7 Guard Bureau and the nomination of Vice Admiral Alvin Holsey
8 for promotion to Admiral and to be commander of U.S.
9 Southern Command.

10          General Nordhaus, congratulations on your nomination.
11 I would like to thank your family and loved ones who have 12 supported your service and are proudly watching right now.
13 Admiral Holsey, I would like to welcome your wife, 14 Stephanie, thank you, and your son Jordan, soon to be Dr.
15 Holsey, and also recognize that your eldest son, Lieutenant 16 Commander select Joshua Holsey could not be here today 17 because he's preparing for an upcoming deployment. And we 18 thank him for his service and wish him luck. Thank you.

19          Let me also recognize outgoing leaders at the National 20 Guard Bureau in Southern Command General Daniel Hokanson 21 recently retired as chief of the National Guard Bureau after 22 38 years of distinguished service to the nation. General 23 Hokanson led the National Guard through one of the most 24 consequential periods in its history, and we are grateful 25 for his steady hand.

1 I would also like to thank General Laura Richardson as 2 she prepares for retirement after nearly four decades in the 3 Army. She has led Southern command with skill and 4 distinction and our forces there are postured for success
5 thanks to her leadership.

6 General Nordhaus, you were well qualified to serve as 7 chief of the National Guard Bureau or NGB. A fighter pilot 8 by training, you have led airmen and soldier at every level, 9 including in your current post as commander of continental 10 U.S. NORAD, and previous command of First Air Force and 11 leadership as director of operations and logistics for the 12 NGB joint staff. If confirmed, you'll serve on the Joint 13 Chiefs of staff as the principal advisor of the Secretary of 14 Defense, and the Chief of Staff of the Army and the Air 15 Force on matters related to the National Guard.

16 This is a challenging but important time for the 17 National Guard. The Guard has always been our military's 18 core combat reserve force, especially over the past two 19 decades, and its war fighting capabilities will continue to 20 be relied upon. Right now, there are tens of thousands of 21 National Guard soldiers and airmen mobilized around the 22 world carrying out vital missions. At the same time, the 23 National Guard's role on American soil is also more 24 important than ever, and its leaders must be thoughtful 25 about how the force is used and resourced.

1           In particular, National Guard's civil support missions
2 are becoming more complicated, responding to natural 3 disasters such as hurricanes, wildfires, tornadoes, and 4 flooding, as well as health and humanitarian crises like 5 COVID-19 often require the skills, manpower, and logistics
6 that only the National Guard can provide. Such challenges 7 will continue to strain local communities and authorities, 8 and the National Guard will have a critical role to play in 9 responding to them.

10           General Nordhaus, I would like to know your thoughts on 11 the proper employment and limits of using the National Guard 12 in support of civilian authorities, including when it is 13 operating in either a state or federal status. In addition,
14 you'll be responsible for improving the National Guard's 15 recruiting and retention strategies.

16 The Guard has fared better than the active components in 17 this regard, but the recruiting environment continues to be 18 historically challenging. I would like to know how you 19 would address this issue, especially in regard to retaining 20 highly skilled personnel with transferable civilian 21 training.

22           Turning to Southern Command Admiral Holsey, you bring 23 36 years of experience as a naval aviator to this position.
24 You have served at sea and ashore across the globe and in 25 every level of leadership. Your current position as

1 military deputy commander of SOUTHCOM and previous 2 experience, including as Commander of Carrier Strike Group 3 one will serve you well. If confirmed As commander of 4 SOUTHCOM, you'll be facing growing challenges from China and 5 Russia and Latin America.

6 The political and economic instability in the region 7 presents a situation that our adversaries are seeking to 8 exploit to increase their own influence. China in 9 particular is expanding its presence in the region, 10 including through investments in strategic infrastructure,
11 such as the Port of Balboa in Panama, 5G telecommunications, 12 and an expanding network of space tracking installations.

13 Admiral, I'm interested in your assessment of the 14 challenge from near peer competitors in Latin America, and 15 how we might work strategically with our partners in the 16 region to build resilience against these activities.

17 Further, we know that violence and economic problems 18 are contributing to the instability in the SOUTHCOM area of 19 responsibility. In particular, Venezuela's President
20 Maduro's failure to provide transparency following the July 21 general election has thrown his nation into greater 22 political and economic chaos. And earlier this spring, the 23 deteriorating security conditions in Haiti prompted the U.S.
24 forces to augment security at the U.S. Embassy in Port au
25 Prince and evacuate non-essential personnel.

1           Finally, transnational criminal activity and corruption 2   continue to harm other areas, especially in the northern 3   triangle countries of Honduras, Guatemala, and El Salvador.
4   Admiral, I would like to know your views on what more can be 5   done to help improve the situation and strengthen security 6   throughout the region.

7           Gentlemen, these complex challenges will require the 8   full complement of your skills. Thank you for your 9   willingness to continue your service and lead the nation, 10   particularly the National Guard and SOUTHCOM at this 11   critical moment. I look forward to your testimonies.

12          Let me now recognize Ranking Member, Senator Wicker.

1           STATEMENT OF HON. ROGER F. WICKER, U.S. SENATOR FROM 2       MISSISSIPPI

3           Senator Wicker: Thank you, Mr. Chairman.

4           I want to thank our witnesses for being here today.
5       You've already recognized family members, but I do want to 6       congratulate Vice Admiral Holsey on persuading a young lady 7       from Claiborne County to be his bride some years ago.

8           Admiral Holsey, as the deputy commander at SOUTHCOM, 9       you know, as well as anyone how effective the Chinese 10      Communist Party has become in the region. The CCP has been 11      engaging in predatory economic and diplomatic practices in 12      the region, threatening our interests there. Our neighbors 13      to the South rightly seek economic security for their 14      people.

15          The Chinese exploit this goal by aggressively lobbying 16      leaders across the hemisphere, pedaling dubious promises of 17      infrastructure, local job creation. Instead of honoring 18      their promises, they often follow through with predatory 19      practices. The CCP leaves those nations worse off by 20      constructing infrastructure exclusively with Chinese labor 21      and by creating facilities that are either poorly built or 22      incomplete.

23          Simultaneously through its state-owned enterprises,
24      China sets conditions to enhance its military presence, 25      gather intelligence, and attempt to limit U.S. access and 1 influence.

2 This July, the Center for Strategic and International 3 Studies published a report in which they outlined no fewer 4 than four separate Chinese electronic surveillance 5 operations on the island of Cuba. These operations may even 6 be able to collect signals intelligence well into U.S.
7 territory.

8 This summer, the Russian Navy sent warships and 9 submarines to exercise with the Cuban Navy. In other words, 10 Great Power Competition is happening right here in the 11 Americas. Now is the time for us to enhance our 12 relationships and economic investment with our Southern 13 neighbors. Yet our current approach is failing.

14 SOUTHCOM has continued to rely primarily on security 15 assistance and cooperation, which is prohibitively
16 expensive. It's time to use capital investments to achieve 17 national security goals in this theater. Traditionally, we 18 have not thought of investment strategy as a tool in DODs
19 belt, but it can be highly effective when properly employed, 20 and you and I have discussed this.

21 We should use it more frequently to promote U.S.
22 influence and defense interest. And SOUTHCOM can lead the 23 way. It should work with entities such as the DODs Office
24 of Strategic Capital, the Development Finance Corporation, 25 and the Export Import Bank. Their collaboration could pair

1 U.S. private capital with strategic investment opportunities
2 in the region, yielding economic and national security
3 benefits for the United States.

4 Admiral Holsey, I look forward to hearing how you
5 intend to change SOUTHCOM's approach so it can do a better
6 job of countering the malign influence of our adversaries
7 and expand U.S. credibility in the region.

8 Now, Lieutenant General Nordhaus, if confirmed to serve 9 as the chief of the National Guard Bureau, you'll be the 10 principal advisor to the Secretary of Defense on National 11 Guard Matters. The National Guard experiences constant 12 tension between its federal and state missions. The federal 13 government provides the vast majority of funds for the 14 National Guard, and it's entitled to set the terms and 15 conditions for how those resources are used.

16 In addition, the National Guard performs vital tasks 17 for local communities, but these services cannot come at the 18 expense of the Guard's military readiness responsibilities.
19 If confirmed, perhaps your most challenging task will be 20 striking a balance between these often competing federal and 21 state missions. These competing priorities have led to 22 avoidable conflict. Only recently, the National Guard 23 cannot be the solution to every local labor shortage. In 24 two extreme examples, some governors have used the National 25 Guard to drive school buses and staff nursing homes. These

1 decisions erode military readiness and they improperly take 2 service members away from their families and their civilian 3 employment, not to mention their statutory mission.

4 If confirmed, I expect you to use your influence to 5 ensure the National Guard personnel are properly focused on 6 readiness and used appropriately to support the Department
7 of Defense and our nation in times of emergency or conflict.

8 Finally, I would like to congratulate the 155th Armored 9 Brigade combat team of the Mississippi Army National Guard 10 on a successful deployment. They took command of the joint 11 multinational training group, Ukraine, located in Germany, 12 and had responsibility for training and mentoring the 13 Ukrainian Armed forces.

14 This mission remains critical to our national security, 15 and I'm proud of the Mississippi National Guard for 16 conducting such an important role, and I felt I should 17 mention it this morning.

18 So, thank both of you for being here. I look forward 19 to a very interesting hearing. Thank you, sir.

20 Chairman Reed: Thank you, Senator Wicker.

21 General Nordhaus, you're recognized.

1           STATEMENT OF LIEUTENANT GENERAL STEVEN S. NORDHAUS,
2           UNITED STATES AIR FORCE

3           General Nordhaus:   Chairman Reed, Ranking Member
4           Wicker, and distinguished members of the committee.  I'm 5           truly honored to be here and thank you for your longstanding 6           support of the mission and men and women of the National 7           Guard.

8           I also want to thank President Biden, secretary Austin 9           and General Brown for their trust and confidence in 10          nominating me to be the next chief of the National Guard 11          Bureau.  I am privileged to testify alongside Vice Admiral 12          Holsey an incredible officer and teammate.  I'd also like to 13          recognize General Hokanson and his wife Kelly for their 14          enduring impact they left on the National Guard.

15          I would not be here today if it were not for my family, 16          and I would like to recognize them for their sacrifices 17          they've made to allow me to do what I love.  My wife 18          Shannon, is the love of my life, the rock of our family, and 19          my faithful spouse for over 35 years.  Her commitment and 20          advocacy for family and soldiers and airmen who serve, has 21          been nothing short of amazing.

22          Together, we have five children, six grandchildren, and 23          430,000 guardsmen we consider family.  Shannon is the oldest 24          daughter of Paul and Brenda Lawrence.  Paul is a retired air 25          traffic controller who served in Southeast Asia during

1 Vietnam. My father Don served in the Navy. He, along with 2 my mom, Sandy, are responsible for my passion and love of 3 flying and joining the Air Force. Our son Clay, is a 4 captain in the Space Force and the others are patriots in 5 their own way. Whitney is the oldest, and Luke are working 6 within their communities. Our twins, Noah and Austin, are 7 currently attending college studying business and music at 8 the universities of Dayton and Michigan.

9 Over the past 35 years I've been shaped by incredible 10 leaders and service members who I've served with at home and 11 abroad during multiple U.S. and coalition deployments. I've 12 held five commands, served at NORAD and U.S. NORTHCOM, and 13 on the NGB staff as Director of Ops and Logistics. I have 14 served both in the active duty and the National Guard as a 15 traditional Guardsman, a temporary technician, and an active 16 Guardsman.

17 These unique leadership experiences have made me 18 acutely aware of the security challenges we face and the 19 tough decisions ahead. I come to you today at an important 20 time in our nation's history, with the rise of strategic 21 competitors, a complex geopolitical environment, and roughly 22 42,000 National Guard soldiers and airmen engaged globally.
23 We face persistent threats both in the homeland and abroad,
24 and the next chief of the National Guard Bureau must work 25 closely with the 54 states, territories, and the District of

1 Columbia, as well as with the services, the Joint Force, and 2 our allies and partners to meet these challenges.

3 In this vein, I believe the state partnership program
4 is critical to our success and makes us stronger together 5 and stronger tomorrow. If confirmed, I will ensure the 6 National Guard airmen and soldiers are manned, trained, and 7 equipped to continue to meet any mission anywhere. I will 8 work tirelessly with this Committee and all the stakeholders 9 to defend our nation.

10 I firmly believe the National Guard is an elite and 11 ready war fighting force, serving as the primary combat 12 reserve to the United States Army and Air Force, providing 13 robust capability, capacity, and strategic and operational 14 depth.

15 This investment serves as a force multiplier, enabling 16 the National Guard to concurrently respond to our 17 community's needs while serving under the control of the 18 governor's and the military needs during times of conflict.
19 You have my solemn promise to maintain an open line of 20 communication with this Committee and Congress.

21 For the last 388 years, the incredible men and women of 22 the National Guard have risen to every challenge and proven 23 themselves on the battlefield and in our communities. They 24 are and always will be my highest priority. They must 25 balance their military careers, their family careers, their

1 civilian careers, so we can keep our promise as Americans to 2 be always ready and always there.

3 In closing, I would like to thank you again for this 4 opportunity to be before this committee. I look forward to 5 your questions.

1 STATEMENT OF VICE ADMIRAL ALVIN HOLSEY, UNITED STATES

2 NAVY

3 Admiral Holsey: Chairman Reed, Ranking Member Wicker, 4 and distinguished members of the committee. I'm honored and 5 humbled to appear before you today as the nominee to lead
6 United States Southern Command. I'd like to thank President
7 Biden, Secretary Austin, and General Brown for their trust 8 and confidence.

9 I'm honored to testify alongside Lieutenant General 10 Nordhaus as the National Guard State Partnership program is 11 a key enabler when it comes to building partner nation 12 capability and capacity throughout the region. I'd also 13 like to recognize and thank General Richardson, the current 14 SOUTHCOM commander and her husband Jim, for their loyal and 15 dedicated 70 plus years of service to our nation. General 16 Richardson's guidance to SOUTHCOM and the impact she has 17 made in the region has been inspiring.

18 If confirmed, I'll build on her efforts and work across 19 the whole of government, our allies, and partners, to ensure 20 we address security challenges and expand opportunities to 21 truly realize SOUTHCOMs vision of a secure, free, and 22 prosperous Western hemisphere.

23 I'd like to thank my family for their love and support 24 throughout my military career. With me today is my wife of 25 34 years, Stephanie, and our youngest son Jordan. Stephanie

1 is my best friend, a wonderful mother, an educator turned 2 dentist, who has practiced in five states based off of our 3 multiple moves as a family. Our oldest son, Joshua, cannot 4 be here today. He's charting his own path in naval 5 aviation, and is preparing for an upcoming deployment.
6 Together we have a combined 45 years of service, and I like 7 to think that we've made a difference.

8 Jordan is in his third year at the University of 9 Virginia Medical School, conducting his clinicals at NOVA 10 Fairfax. I cannot be prouder of the young men they have 11 become. I'd also like to thank my parents, the late Charles 12 Holsey Senior, an engineer, and my mother Rosa Holsey, a 13 retired educator. They raised four sons and taught us the 14 importance of faith, family, education, and service.

15 My father served in the army during the Korean War and 16 his three brothers all served in the Navy. Go Navy. Three 17 of my mother's four brothers served in the Army during 18 Vietnam. Service is not just what we do, it is who we are 19 as a family.

20 My first deployment to SOUTHCOM area of responsibility
21 was over 33 years ago, conducting counter-drug missions 22 flying off a Knox Class frigate, but this region, our 23 neighborhood is so much more. It's on the front line of 24 strategic competition. Most focus to the East and West when 25 they think of Great Power Competition. But a look to our

1 South reveals that our adversaries have established a strong 2 presence, jeopardizing security, and stability across the 3 Americas. The PRC and Russia are strategic competitors who 4 seek to undermine democracy while gaining power and 5 influence in the region.

6 Transnational criminal organizations create and exploit 7 the permissive environment, undermining the rule of law and 8 disrupting legitimate government functions. Additionally, 9 transboundary threats demand our attention as well, from 10 irregular migration, climate change, eroding democracies, to 11 food and water insecurities. Our time is now. If we don't 12 take deliberate and meaningful steps over the next 5 to 10 13 years, this region will change forever.

14 To be clear, partnerships are our best deterrence to 15 counting shared security and economic concerns, and for now, 16 we remain the trusted partner. But we can't take that for 17 granted. Over the past 19 months as a deputy commander, 18 I've personally seen the importance of our enduring presence 19 in the region and how partners seek us as an alternative to 20 the PRC, Russia, and others.

21 Rapidly responding to crises is not just a phrase in 22 our mission statement. For the past several years, SOUTHCOM 23 has responded, and we will respond again, to earthquakes, 24 floods, wildfires, volcanoes, hurricanes, and droughts. To 25 be a trusted partner, we must be credible, present, and

1 engaged. Our main campaigning tool in this region is 2 security cooperation. If confirmed, I'll work tirelessly 3 with our partners to understand the requirements, then work 4 across the whole of government to deliver at the point of 5 need, and build partner nation capability and capacity to 6 respond to our shared threats in our neighborhood.

7 I also look forward, if confirmed, to working with 8 Congress who are central partners in the defense of our 9 nation.

10 Thank you again, Chairman Reed, Ranking Member Wicker, 11 members of the committee, for this opportunity. I look 12 forward to your questions.

1 Chairman Reed: Thank you, Admiral. I have a series of 2 questions required of all nominees. You may answer in 3 unison. Have you adhered to applicable laws and regulations 4 governing conflicts of interest?

5 Admiral Holsey: Yes.

6 General Nordhaus: Yes.

7 Chairman Reed: Have you assumed any duties or taken 8 any actions that would appear to presume the outcome of the 9 confirmation process?

10 Admiral Holsey: No.

11 General Nordhaus: No.

12 Chairman Reed: Exercising our legislative and 13 oversight responsibility makes it important that this 14 committee, its subcommittees, and other appropriate 15 committees of Congress, receive testimony, briefings, 16 reports, records, and other information from the executive 17 branch on a timely basis. Do you agree, if confirmed, to 18 appear and testify before this committee when requested?

20 General Nordhaus: Yes.

21 Chairman Reed: Do you agree when asked before this 22 committee to give your personal views even if your views 23 differ from the administration?

25 General Nordhaus: Yes.

1 Chairman Reed: Do you agree to provide records,
2 documents, and electronic communications in a timely manner 3 when requested by this committee, its subcommittees, or 4 other appropriate committees of Congress, and to consult 5 with the requester regarding the basis for any good faith, 6 delay, or denial in providing such records?

7 Admiral Holsey: Yes.

8 General Nordhaus: Yes.

9 Chairman Reed: Will you ensure that your staff 10 complies with deadlines established by this committee for 11 the reduction of reports, records, and other information, 12 including timely responding to hearing questions for the 13 record?

15 General Nordhaus: Yes.

16 Chairman Reed: Will you cooperate in providing 17 witnesses and briefings in response to congressional 18 requests?

20 General Nordhaus: Yes.

21 Chairman Reed: Will those witnesses and briefers be 22 protected from reprisal for their testimony or briefings?

24 General Nordhaus: Yes.

25 Chairman Reed: Thank you very much, gentlemen.

1       Admiral Holsey, could you give a brief outline of 2       SOUTHCOM's current priorities and initiatives to counter the 3       acute threat of Russia and China and other malign nations?
4       You might bring that microphone a little forward, sir.

5       Admiral Holsey: Yes, Senator.

6       Chairman Reed: Okay.

7       Admiral Holsey: Thank you. Yes, for the current 8       priorities are to strengthen partnerships, counter threats, 9       and to build our team. So, as we look at the SOUTHCOM AOR, 10      strategic competition's real. As I mentioned, the PRC and 11      Russia continue to try to undermine democracy and seek to 12      gain power and influence in the region. When I look at the 13      transnational criminal organizations, they continue to 14      create chaos throughout the region.

15      The transnational criminal organizations and the 16      violent extremist organizations remain the primary threat to 17      instability in the region. You also have a third of their 18      funding that they pick in each year is kind of drug mission 19      from drug ops or illicit drugs. So, we're watching it very 20      closely. Then finally, I'm concerned about the unrest in 21      Haiti, Venezuela, and Cuba as it stands right now, that also 22      contributes to the irregular migration that we're seeing.

23      Chairman Reed: And in particular with respect to 24      Russia and China's influence?

25      Admiral Holsey: Yes, sir. So with regard to Russia,

1 China first. China remains a long-term strategic 2 competitor. They're a pacing challenge and they're setting 3 the theater. In my view PRC approach to the region is 4 primarily driven by economics, which provides access,
5 influence, and the opportunity to coerce our partner nations
6 into unfavorable terms.

7 In short, they see unchecked opportunity. I think 8 they're playing the long view to using economic state craft
9 to advance their foreign policy goals. So that's the quick 10 piece there from an economic side, but it's more than that.
11 I think there are efforts to develop and build dual use 12 sites and facilities in the region is concerning, from 13 space, land, infrastructure to ports and 5G infrastructure 14 as well.

15 From a Russia standpoint, they're a more acute 16 challenge. They seek to undermine democracy. They like to 17 compete with the United States, I believe, on a global 18 scale, and they look for low cost opportunities to exert 19 their influence and take advantage of the chaos in the 20 region to build their partnerships and undermine ours. They 21 generally look to again, maintain partnerships. They seek 22 to provide presence, and they try to shape their information
23 space. So, all that's very challenging.

24 I think we can get after that, sir, through our 25 security operation, our partnerships, working the whole of 1 government to make sure we can stay on the field and engage.

2 Chairman Reed: Thank you very much. General Nordhaus, 3 you have been at every level of service in the National 4 Guard and with the Air Force. Can you give us sort of your 5 lessons learned from the numerous post 9/11 contingency 6 operations that the Guard has been assigned, and they've 7 carried them out magnificently. I was a few months ago in 8 Kosovo with my National Guard as they're fulfilling their 9 mission. So, the lessons you think are most critical.

10 General Nordhaus: Thanks, Chairman. Appreciate the 11 opportunity. The National Guard and our airmen and soldiers 12 are completely integrated and interoperable with our active 13 army and Air Force. And that lesson as we look into the 14 future needs to continue. As we look at priorities as I go 15 forward, if confirmed, our people are the most critical.
16 So, recruiting and retention and making sure that we have 17 those and continue that the lessons learned there to make 18 sure that we always have our force structure full, organized 19 training, equipped, to be that combat reserve to the Army
20 and the Air Force.

21 Then, really, readiness. I think readiness is 22 something that we have to continue to build, and as we look 23 at Great Power Competition that we're in, we have to 24 accelerate that and make sure that readiness for our airmen 25 and our soldiers are ready to be deployable, interoperable,

1 and sustainable.

2 And then the partnerships that you mentioned. As we 3 look at the 106 state partners around the globe today, those 4 partnerships are critical and are asymmetric advantage for 5 our nation.

6 And then modernization. We need to stay concurrent 7 with modernization with our services so that we can always 8 be ready and there for them.

9 Chairman Reed: Thank you very much, General. Thank 10 you both for your service to the nation.

11 Senator Wicker, please.

12 Senator Wicker: Thank you, Mr. Chairman. Admiral 13 Holsey, in my opening statement, I mentioned how 14 prohibitively expensive security assistance is in the 15 region, and suggested other ways in which we could perhaps 16 emphasize our friendship and strengthen our ties with our 17 friends in SOUTHCOM. I mentioned office of Strategic 18 Capital, Development Finance Corporation, and the Export 19 Import Bank. Do you agree and what do you think about that?

20 Admiral Holsey: Senator, I absolutely agree. Economic 21 security is national security. And what we're seeing from 22 my partners we have to be to respond at the point of need at 23 the point of relevance. And so we're realizing as we work 24 through the foreign military, foreign financing process, it 25 can be slow at times. So, we're looking for opportunities,

1 and some countries are high income countries, and so we're 2 trying to find ways to deliver quicker.

3 So, we are exploring right now with EXIM Bank. We'll 4 get a chance to go out to the Inter-American Development 5 Bank and other opportunities. We're looking at talking to 6 American Chamber of Commerce. So, we're trying to get our 7 story out there and kind of get the synergy with our 8 partners to understand that here's the opportunities for you
9 to actually go after. So, we're really pressing real hard 10 on that and we'll continue to do so, sir, if confirmed.

11 Senator Wicker: Okay. You talked about us being the 12 trusted partner in the great majority of the nations in 13 SOUTHCOM. And I think you mentioned three particular areas
14 where there's a problem that of course would be Cuba, 15 Venezuela, and I believe you said Haiti. In the other 16 countries, other than those three, isn't it a fact that even 17 though we are the trusted partner, the People's Republic of 18 China is right in there paying for infrastructure, spreading 19 their money around. And is that correct? Am I correct in 20 that? And if you could elaborate on that for us please.

21 Admiral Holsey: So, Senator, the PRC continues to 22 -- right now you have 22 countries of 31 who are signatories 23 of Belt and Road Initiative. And so what they do with the 24 Belt and Road Initiative, they portray that as expanding 25 economic, financial, and trade opportunities. I think we

1 see it a bit differently. I think by the times our 2 countries realize they've been deceived, they found 3 themselves with more debt, high interest rate loans, poorly
4 constructed infrastructure projects, data insecurity,
5 resource extraction, and environmental concerns.

6 So, you're right, I think there are countries there 7 -- and not all of them -- but all of them are looking for 8 opportunities. So I think we have to find ways working 9 throughout the whole of government, the department of 10 Commerce and others, and to be able to find ways and find 11 solutions where we can deliver at the point of need.

12 Senator Wicker: How has that negative experience over 13 some years now with Belt and Road affected our friends' 14 willingness to initiate other projects assisted by Belt and 15 Road?

16 Admiral Holsey: So, I think our partners look at us 17 from a standpoint, from a mill to mill. They're solid.
18 They want to work with us, they want to be of us. There are 19 some nations as, you look at --

20 Senator Wicker: But are they beginning to be reluctant 21 to accept China's help because of the negative practices so 22 far?

23 Admiral Holsey: Yes, sir.

24 Senator Wicker: All right. Let me just ask you one 25 other thing. President Xi has told his Congress in China

1 that they need to be prepared to retake Taiwan by 2027. If 2 that occurs, what can we expect China to be doing in your 3 area as that occurs?

4 Admiral Holsey: Senator, as the deputy commander, I've 5 had a chance to -- I've been around for 18 months, 19 months 6 now, and I'll share with you that we continue to work in 7 accordance with our guidance to defend the Panama Canal and 8 make sure we can provide our best military advice to the Sec
9 Def and Chairman. And that's what we'll do.

10 Senator Wicker: Thank you. Thank you, Mr. Chairman.

11 Chairman Reed: Thank you very much, Senator Wicker.

12 Senator Shaheen, please.

13 Senator Shaheen: Thank you.

14 Congratulations to both of you and thank you to both of 15 you for your service and to your families for their service 16 as well, and welcome.

17 General Nordhaus, I really appreciated your time in my 18 office this week. As you know, I'm very concerned about the 19 National Guard Bureau's decision to level personnel at the 20 157th Air Refueling Wing at Pease Air Guard Base in New 21 Hampshire. I believe this was a shortsighted decision, that 22 it was done with consideration to neither the capacity of 23 the 157th in New Hampshire, nor the need of the KC-46 to 24 meet its global refueling requirements.

25 And just to give you some background on the 157th, I

1     assume you know all of this, but I think it's worth
2     repeating. The 157th was the first Air National Guard Unit
3     to receive the KC-46 refueling tanker. They were selected 4     because of their success in operations and their strategic 5     location.

6             It was the first refueling wing in the country to 7     achieve initial operating capacity of the five active duty 8     Guard and reserve wings flying the KC-46. They were the 9     first air refueling wing to conduct a long-range exercise, 10    and for that, they received recognition from Top Air Force
11    leadership. And now they're the first KC-46 Air Refueling 12    Wing in the entire Air Force to deploy the KC-46 overseas.

13            I was just in New Hampshire on Sunday, as we discussed.
14    I addressed the 300 airmen and women about to deploy. They 15    are excited about this milestone, but they are unfortunately 16    very worried about what the releveling would mean for their 17    ability to do their jobs. This decision, I think, is 18    problematic, not just for New Hampshire, but for the KC-46
19    to meet its operational requirements globally. The proposed 20    leveling will cause a reduction in force at Pease by 12
21    full-time positions. It will revert 22 positions from full-22    time, active guard reserve to technician, resulting in the 23    loss of experienced maintainers and aviators.

24            The Guard projects its ability to support TRANSCOM will 25    decrease by 23 percent. And this at a time when we know

1 that aerial refueling capacity is among the top concerns for 2 strategic command and transportation command. We heard that 3 from their commanders before this committee. In the context 4 of the National Defense Strategy, as you were just 5 discussing with the Chair and Ranking Member, aerial 6 refueling will be necessary to resupply U.S. forces in the 7 Indo-Pacific.

8 So, if confirmed, I hope you will visit New Hampshire, 9 you will meet with the 157th, and you will provide an 10 opportunity to look at the importance of their mission to an 11 exemption for this policy. I know that that has been done 12 in some other states, in Alaska, because of the critical 13 mission that they operate, and I believe that you will find 14 that that's the case in New Hampshire as well.

15 Will you commit to doing that and looking at the whole 16 releveling issue with respect to New Hampshire and the 17 157th?

18 General Nordhaus: Senator, thank you for the question 19 and for being on the National Guard Caucus. The 157th also, 20 I'll just throw out, you named a lot of great things that 21 the 157th is doing currently as the NORAD Continental Region
22 Commander. They also support air refueling for POTUS
23 support and other things across the United States. So I 24 understand the great capability.

25 Understand that General Hokanson said that any state

1 that had a concern that he would consider a one-year
2 exemption. My understanding is Pease, New Hampshire, asked
3 for that and that's been granted. He also said that they'd 4 conduct an assessment. It's my understanding that 5 International Guard within the next couple of weeks will 6 visit New Hampshire. If confirmed, I do promise to make 7 sure we take a full transparent look at this and to make 8 sure that we're meeting mission requirements with full-time 9 requirements.

10 And I look forward to visiting the Pease 157th if 11 confirmed, and look forward to giving this my full 12 attention.

13 Senator Shaheen: Thank you very much.

14 Mr. Chairman, I would like to submit for the record the 15 assessment that we have done -- that the National Guard has 16 done on what the impact would be of that releveling in New 17 Hampshire.

18 Chairman Reed: Without objection. So, ordered.

19 [The information referred to follows:]

20 [COMMITTEE INSERT]

1 Senator Shaheen: Thank you. Thank you, Mr. Chairman.

2 Chairman Reed: Thank you, Senator Shaheen.

3 Senator Fischer, please.

4 Senator Fischer: Thank you, Mr. Chairman. Welcome,
5 General. Welcome, Admiral. Good to see you.

6 Admiral Holsey, I share your concern about the growing
7 influence of China in some countries within SOUTHCOM's AOR.
8 If confirmed, how would you continue or bolster efforts to 9 ensure that the United States is going to be viewed as a 10 partner of choice?

11 Admiral Holsey: Senator, as I look at the way forward, 12 if confirmed, I think our strength lies in our security
13 cooperation. I think we continue to do the security 14 cooperation. And then under that level that we have several 15 levers we can use, state partnership program, the 16 humanitarian assistance program, a joint exercise program, 17 which is a very powerful tool.

18 Today, right now we have the UNITAS ongoing, 24 nations
19 serving a ship side-by-side, F-18s, ships, submarines. So 20 we're doing real world ops right now, and what that does, it 21 provides the training, interoperability, trust, and 22 confidence in our partners. So that's something that we can 23 do and we continue to do. So I think we'll continue to work 24 on the security operation and again, whole of government 25 approach, diplomacy in the lead, and then make sure we

1 integrate those efforts with the economic and military as 2 well.

3 Senator Fischer: This committee, we consistently hear 4 that we have to be more effective in a whole of government 5 approach, especially when we're trying to engage with our 6 partners. If confirmed, can you give me some specific 7 examples with how you would work, maybe with the Department
8 of State, with the Department of Commerce, any other 9 agencies that are out there, so that we can become even 10 better partners in Latin America?

11 [Off mic response.]

12 Senator Fischer: I think you need your mic on.

13 Admiral Holsey: The civilian deputy at U.S. Southern 14 Command is actually an ambassador. She served in Guyana, so 15 she's there in the office right now. We have Department of 16 Commerce, L&O in our -- one of our 13 L&Os we have in our 17 command. So, there's avenues to reach in and utilize our 18 talents, and we have to do that. I think when we convene 19 our conferences, Chief of Mission Conference, we bring all 20 the ambassadors to SOUTHCOM, and we invite all the 21 Department of State, Commerce, and have these discussions.

22 That's how we learned about the great opportunity with 23 EXIM Bank by inviting the President down to the conference.
24 So, we'll continue to look for those avenues to understand
25 better what options we have. Yes, ma'am.

1 Senator Fischer: Okay, thank you.

2 General, we look at a significant amount of Total Force 3 logistics and airlift capability. And we know that that 4 resides with our National Guard. In a potential conflict, 5 especially with a peer adversary, especially when one may 6 happen with limited notification, limited warnings to our 7 country, National Guard forces are going to have to really 8 mobilize quickly.

9 What do you see as opportunities to increase 10 integration and collaboration with the Total Force, 11 especially in terms of planning and exercise, so that we can 12 have a much quicker deployment?

13 General Nordhaus: Senator, over the last decade, I've 14 really seen an incredible integration of the National Guard 15 with all operations across the Army and the Air Force. As 16 we look at transformation that's going on with the Army and 17 optimizing for Great Power Competition in the United States 18 Air Force, our National Guard on both sides are fully 19 integrated into their plans.

20 And then as we do exercises, large scale exercises that 21 really prepare for that type of conflict if it were to come, 22 I think we're well integrated across the board. If 23 confirmed, I will work with General George and General Alvin 24 to make sure that we continue that and make sure that we're 25 always ready and always there and we can mobilize quickly to 1 meet the needs of our nation.

2 Senator Fischer: You know, we've heard this morning,
3 the State Partnership Program, it's been mentioned a couple 4 of times, the Admiral just did that. Do you see 5 opportunities out there that we can continue to build upon 6 this program? I believe that most states are involved in 7 it, Nebraska has a couple of partners, and I know that our 8 Guard feels that that's a valuable program not just for our 9 country, but in the countries that we serve with as well.
10 Any opportunities out there to grow this?

11 General Nordhaus: Absolutely, Senator. We will work 12 with combatant commands to make sure that we take a look at 13 all the opportunities that are out there and through the 14 State Department. We recently just added Finland and 15 Sweden, and so we will continue to look at that program. I 16 think it is the incredible asymmetric capability of our 17 nation with our allies and partners to be that great force 18 for our nation and for freedom.

19 Senator Fischer: Okay, thank you. Thank you, Mr.
20 Chair.

21 Chairman Reed: Thank you, Senator Fisher.

22 Senator Kaine, please.

23 Senator Kaine: Thank you, Mr. Chair. And 24 congratulations to the witnesses for your nominations.

25 General Nordhaus, I'd want to begin where Senator

1 Fisher left off on the State Partnership Program. Virginia
2 has a partnership with Tajikistan that goes back to 2003, 3 and we're very proud that this year we formed an additional 4 state partnership with Finland. Finland joining NATO
5 combines nicely with the fact that we're standing up in NATO 6 command in Norfolk to focus on the North Atlantic and the 7 Arctic. And Finland, as a state partner, I think will be a 8 very valuable one for us.

9 So, I just want to encourage the work that you will 10 continue to do when you are confirmed to strengthen these 11 programs and look at the way the state partnership programs 12 can evolve to help us face challenges of the future.

13 I have a very specific question for you, General 14 Nordhaus. The Blended Retirement System was developed in 15 the 2016 NDAA to include incentives like mid-career
16 continuation pay to encourage retention. Talk a little bit 17 about how the National Guard has been impacted by this new 18 system, and is there anything additional Congress can do to 19 provide support for National Guard members through programs 20 like Blended Retirement?

21 General Nordhaus: Senator, thanks for the question and 22 the comments on the State Partnership Program. As we look 23 at our National Guard and we continue to see really high 24 retention rates, I think that's one of the things that we'll 25 have to continue to look at to see what impacts Blended

1 Retirement System has.

2 As I said in my opening statement and talked about with 3 the chairman, people are my number one priority. And so, we 4 have to understand what they need, what the requirements are 5 to make sure that they're organized, trained, equipped to be 6 able to do the mission, but they also have the appropriate
7 pay and benefits to make sure that the National Guard is a 8 great place to work and then have that in longevity.

9 Senator Kaine: I understand going forward, we need to 10 assess that all the time. Do you have a kind of -- this has 11 been in place for a couple of years, do you have a sense for 12 how it's working? I mean, are we too hot, too cold, just 13 right, or how would you assess it thus far?

14 General Nordhaus: Senator, my early assessment from my 15 time, I haven't seen a significant change, but if confirmed, 16 I will definitely make that something I'll take a look at to 17 understand the impacts. If I see anything negative, I'll, 18 I'll be sure to come back to the committee.

19 Senator Kaine: Okay. Thank you for that.

20 Admiral Holsey, I chair the Americas Subcommittee on 21 Senate Foreign Relations, and I'll pick up on some questions
22 in line of inquiry from Senator Wicker. He was asking you 23 whether partners in the Americas or seeing or developing 24 skepticism based upon some of their interactions with China.
25 And I think you're right that the answer is yes, and yet

1    what I hear, what I travel in the region is, "But you can't 2    beat something with nothing."

3           They may put deals on the table that could trap us in 4    debt. They may want to do development projects that will be 5    performed in a substandard way. Sometimes those projects 6    are performed with Chinese workers, not workers from the 7    countries in question. There are environmental challenges.
8    They're worrying about data security. I hear that 9    everywhere.

10          And yet they usually conclude by saying, and yet 11    they're putting significant investments on the table that 12    they're willing to do, and they don't necessarily see the 13    same attention, resources from the United States. If you 14    include U.S. private company investment, and we should 15    always talk about that as part of what we do, then it
16    equalizes a little bit more. But they tend to see China
17    coming with a checkbook that's nearly, you know, blank 18    checks that they're willing to fill in whatever the number 19    is, and they don't really see that from us.

20          And some of the programs that we have, frankly, for 21    nations in the Americas, as soon as they achieve some level
22    of success, like a Costa Rica, Dominican Republic, we say, 23    "Well, now you're a well-off nation, and so these programs 24    can't serve you anymore." I think we need to do an awful 25    lot more to help those nations in the Americas that are

1 allies who are successful, to succeed even more.

2 And what they often say to us is, "As soon as we're 3 successful, you don't pay attention to us, and you spend 4 your time on the headaches." Obviously, we need to spend 5 some time on the headaches, but I think we're getting out
6 competed in the Americas. And that's my sense. General 7 Richardson, I think did a wonderful job. I know you and she 8 have worked closely together in, in strengthening the mill-9 to-mill partnerships, but it does need to go beyond that.

10 So, if you could maybe share with the committee what 11 risks do we assume as a country if we fail to devote the 12 necessary resources, military or otherwise, and attention to 13 the challenges we're seeing in Latin America.

14 Admiral Holsey: Thank you, Senator. Just one quick 15 thing I'll share. When you look at the 5G standpoint, and 16 so from 5G, if you have a Huawei system or PRC system, now 17 our partners have that data and security risk. It's 18 connected to your network system. Now, how do you continue 19 to work with us, right? So, we're trying to make sure we 20 have opportunities and options for them, and we just have to 21 move a whole lot faster. Yes, sir.

22 Senator Kaine: Thank you. I yield back.

23 Chairman Reed: Thank you very much, Senator Kaine.

24 Senator Cotton, please?

25 Senator Cotton: Thank you. Gentlemen, congratulations

1 on your nomination and congratulations and thank you to your 2 families and your mentors and the NCOs across the course of 3 your career who brought you to this point.

4 General Nordhaus, obviously the National Guard plays a 5 very critical role for our nation. We see them at home 6 responding to national disasters or crises but we also rely 7 on them for our national security. As some of the other 8 senators have said about their National Guard, the Arkansas 9 National Guard was just last year in Germany providing 10 critical support and training to Ukraine's armed forces
11 where I visited with them.

12 And just next week we'll have a ribbon cutting ceremony
13 at Ebbing Air Force Base for the new foreign training 14 mission for the F-35. These are vitally important, not just 15 for the Arkansas National Guard, but also for our nation
16 security. And I know that I have your commitment to support 17 that just as much as your predecessors have, correct?

18 General Nordhaus: Yes, sir. I support those important 19 programs that you talked about.

20 Senator Cotton: Thank you. I want to turn to an issue 21 that's kind of at the intersection of your current role at 22 NORAD, and that might be in your role at the National Guard 23 Bureau. You're familiar, obviously with the high tempo of 24 drone incursions over our military installations not just in 25 places like Iraq and Syria, but here in the United States to 1 include National Guard bases.

2 What's your view of the National Guard's role in 3 defending installations and domestic infrastructure from 4 such drone incursions?

5 General Nordhaus: Senator, you raised an important issue.
6 Counter small UAS and protecting our bases is absolutely
7 vital. We are seeing increased incursions through NORTHCOM
8 commander General Guillot, which sets the force protection 9 across the United States bases have that responsibility to 10 defend and secure and protect their bases. The same would 11 be for the National Guard in the bases. And so I'd work
12 whole of government approach and certainly with the Services 13 that has taken this issue very seriously and on weekly 14 meetings to make sure we get after the problem.

15 Senator Cotton: Okay. Do you have the relevant 16 authority you need right now to support DHS and DOJ when we 17 see drone incursions violating U.S. airspace, controls over 18 U.S. military installations?

19 General Nordhaus: Senator, authorities are different 20 in the United States than they are overseas. And so I know 21 General Guillot nor NORTHCOM as the synchronizer for the 22 Department of Defense. Certainly, looking at those and 23 working those authorities to make sure if additional ones 24 are needed, that that's brought forward. We want to make 25 sure that we have the right capability, both either kinetic

1 or non-kinetic to understand and domain awareness so that we 2 can sense the incursions, and then that we have the problem 3 set right and the authorities to use whichever need to 4 protect our people and our equipment.

5 Senator Cotton: Thank you. Any thoughts on what you 6 might do if confirmed about the long-term procurement and 7 sustainment of capabilities needed for a Homeland Counter 8 drone mission?

9 General Nordhaus: For the counter drone mission, yes 10 Senator. We'll work with our services who are the 11 procurement authority. So I'll certainly work with General
12 Alvin and General George as we look forward to the best way 13 to defend our bases and protect our people.

14 Senator Cotton: Okay. Thank you.

15 Admiral Holsey, I want to talk a little bit about 16 Haiti. There's a current UN plan and a multinational 17 security support mission to deploy around 2,500 personnel to 18 Haiti, mostly from Kenya and Benin, but also some Caribbean 19 nations. I have to say, this strikes me as a totally 20 harebrained scheme. Port-Au-Prince, for instance, has 1.2
21 million people. It's overrun by gangs and militias, and it 22 lacks a functioning government.

23 I know that in your current role or your future role, 24 you don't shape policy as it relates to Haiti, but I do want 25 to know from your military expertise and your role as the

1 current deputy commander in SOUTHCOM, what do you think is 2 the prospect of success for a force of 2,500 personnel to 3 stabilize a city of 1.2 million people without an effective 4 government?

5 Admiral Holsey: Senator, thanks for that question. As 6 I look at the current layout right now, we're planning for 7 approximately 1000 at this point, is what we're looking at.
8 So it's a very challenging problem set, right? But I will 9 share with you, as I look at at least one metric right now 10 we have the about 350, almost 380 or so Kenyans on the 11 ground. When I look at the number of Haitians coming 12 through the Darien, and I've seen that number trending down 13 for the last couple months, I think that's somewhat sending 14 a signal to at least the Haitians that they're willing to 15 wait and see how this plays out. But it will be a very 16 challenging problem set, sir.

17 Senator Cotton: Yeah, I think it'll be challenging as 18 well. And what concerns me most is there's a fairly long 19 history of our interventions or the UN's interventions in 20 Haiti, and they don't have very good end stories, especially 21 the United Nations and what some of its officials have done 22 in Haiti. I just worry very much that other nations are 23 biting off more than they can chew under a hair-brained UN 24 scheme, and where are they going to turn in a crisis?

25 They're going to turn to you and to the United States

1 and our personnel, and we might end up in a situation where 2 we have to put American forces at least into the ports to 3 help evacuate people. And I think that would be very, very 4 unwise for our nation. So I agree that 2,500 troops, or 5 even a few more than that, is unlikely to do much in Haiti 6 and puts our own personnel potentially at great risk in the 7 future.

8 Thank you. Congratulations both.

9 Chairman Reed: Thank you very much, Senator Cotton.

10 Senator King, please.

11 Senator King: Thank you, Mr. Chairman. Admiral 12 Holsey, you're serving in a war zone. Since we've been 13 sitting here this morning, 10 Americans have died as a 14 result of the work in that war zone. I'm talking about 15 overdose deaths, over a hundred thousand in the country, 16 almost one a day in my state of Maine. Americans are dying, 17 and here's what's the problem or a problem, a part of the 18 problem.

19 We are only interdicting 25 percent of the drug 20 shipments by sea that are coming to this country that we 21 know of, that intelligence tells us are coming and where 22 they are. And yet, 75 percent of them get through. That's 23 inexcusable. There's something crazy about that. We're 24 talking about perspective issues with other countries in the 25 region, this is a real live war zone where people are being

1 killed. And I just don't understand it. This has been 2 going on for years, I've been asking this question.

3 So I want to understand why we're able to only 4 interdict 25 percent of the drug shipments that we know 5 about. And if it's a lack of ships, let's find them. The 6 Navy, the Coast Guard, neighboring countries. How about 7 this? The boats that we do interdict, let's get the people 8 off and the drugs off and turn them into -- arm them, and 9 then they can be part of the fleet to interdict other 10 shipments.

11 But we've got to think creatively about this. I'm tired of 12 coming to this hearing every couple of years and hearing 13 this same figure of 25 percent interdiction of what we know 14 of. Will you commit to me to do two things?

15 Number one, to look for the resources and the assets 16 that are necessary to execute this mission. And number two, 17 to look at the organization of the mission. There are lots
18 of U.S. government agencies involved, intelligence, DHS, 19 drug interdiction, Navy, Coast Guard. My sense is nobody's 20 in charge. And I'd like you to come back to this committee 21 with an organizational chart that shows that somebody is in 22 charge. And I never like to hear the phrase, "all of 23 government." Every time I hear that phrase, what I hear is, 24 nobody's in charge.

25 Will you make those two commitments, Admiral?

1       Admiral Holsey: Senator, I understand your concern.
2       And even one life is precious. And so it doesn't matter how 3       many, right? One is precious.

4       I'll share with you that I'll commit to looking at this 5       very closely. I believe that we have areas that we can 6       improve. I will advocate for adequate resourcing air and 7       maritime assets to bolster our presence and to be able to 8       effect interdiction. I think we have to do that. We have 9       to continue to work with intelligence as well. But again, 10      it's a very challenging problem set. We'll continue to 11      support the lead federal agency, the DEA. Again, we have 12      all those resources, but now we have to bring them together.

13      Senator King: But if you don't have the assets, if you
14      don't have those ships, let us know. That's the business 15      that we're in. Let us know so that we can try to solve this 16      problem. But I want you, as you're flying back today, bear 17      in mind that one American, every five minutes, 24 hours a 18      day is dying --

19      Admiral Holsey: Yes, sir.

20      Senator King: -- as a result of this crisis.

21      General, congratulations on your appointment. I should 22      have said that to you as also Admiral Holsey. We want KC-23      46s at Bangor at the 101st Air Refueling Wing, and I hope 24      that that's going to be on your list. That's, as you know, 25      during the Gulf War, during anything that's going on in

1 Europe, Ukraine, the 101st Air Refueling Wing is critical
2 because what they work is the North Atlantic.

3 So, will you commit to me that they will get a good, 4 close, serious consideration for the next round of 5 deployment of KC-46s?

6 General Nordhaus: Senator, like you raised, KC-46 is 7 an incredible platform for us. I also visited Bangor up 8 there within the last six months or so. And sir, you have 9 an incredible unit up there. And certainly, with the states
10 and opportunities for KC-46, that'll be a very critical 11 process that we're going through right now. Certainly, all 12 the states that have the opportunity, I believe there's 15 13 of them, we'll have a full look with the criteria that's 14 been acknowledged by the states, also approved by the wing 15 commanders and the tags, and then that'll come up through a 16 process and be open and transparent for that.

17 Senator King: Thank you. I was going to suggest you 18 could, as you visit Bangor, you could visit Pease by flying 19 over it on the way to Bangor. I suggested that to Senator 20 Shaheen.

21 Quick note, a lot of people have mentioned
22 partnerships, these international partnerships. We have one
23 with Montenegro, very successful. We came to their defense 24 in 2022 on a cyber incident. It made a huge difference for 25 them. I'm very proud of our cyber warriors in Maine, as

1 well as the MAINEiacs of the 101st. Thank you.

2 Senator Wicker: Mr. Chairman.

3 Chairman Reed: Senator Wicker.

4 Senator Wicker: I yielded back 14 seconds earlier. I 5 wonder if I could ask Admiral Holsey, what do we do with 6 those boats that we seize and interdict, and what do you 7 think about that suggestion?

8 Admiral Holsey: So, sir, we actually do seize boats.
9 In fact, part of our JIATF South and as well as our nav 10 south hybrid fleet we're using some of these boats as 11 drones, as targets. And so we do that. And then if it's 12 unseaworthy, then the ship duly sinks it or scuttles it if 13 it's not seaworthy.

14 Senator Wicker: I think it's a worthwhile suggestion
15 that Senator King has made.

16 Chairman Reed: Thank you, Senator Wicker. Thank you, 17 Senator King.

18 Senator Scott, please.

19 Senator Scott: Thank you, Chairman. First 20 congratulations on your nominations. Thank you for your 21 willingness to serve. Thank you for the sacrifice of your 22 families.

23 So I'm from Florida, so we follow closely what's going 24 on in Latin America. So you can look at Cuba, Venezuela, 25 and Nicaragua, Columbia. Look at all these places. Even

1 some issues that are going on in Brazil. So, Admiral 2 Holsey, let's take Venezuela. Maduro's trying to steal the 3 election. I'm very disappointed the Biden and Harris
4 Administration won't recognize Gonzalez as the President-5 elect.

6 The election was clearly stolen. We're still fighting
7 to make sure that Maduro leaves power. So, what if Maduro 8 doesn't leave power? What concerns do you have and what 9 will happen in Venezuela and how does it impact our national 10 security?

11 Admiral Holsey: So, Senator, I understand your 12 concern. I think if Maduro doesn't leave, I think the 13 instability will continue. The economy has worsened since 14 2013, you had over 8 million migrants leave the country.
15 You've had the economy, there's a lack of food, water 16 supply, services. So again, I see a potential where the 17 mass migration continues through the Darien. And, if 18 confirmed, I'll continue to work with my allies and partners 19 in the region to try to mitigate the instability caused by 20 the migration.

21 Senator Scott: So, communist China, or communist 22 regime in Cuba, do you think they're a national security 23 threat to the United States?

24 Admiral Holsey: I think right now Senator, in Cuba, as 25 I think they're being supported by both Russia and China,

1 from a security cooperation, deepen their relationship with 2 them. And if confirmed, I continue to make sure we remain
3 keenly aware of any defense cooperation in sales collection
4 or military deployments, and make sure I can provide options 5 as required.

6 Senator Scott: Do you believe Columbia is a trusted 7 military partner?

8 Admiral Holsey: In my 18, 19 months in the job now I 9 see no reason why they're not. I think they're very engaged 10 with us. They're taking losses every day. They're in the 11 fight against the TCOs, and they're looking for our support, 12 and I think we need to continue to support them.

13 Senator Scott: Does it concern you that Petro has 14 alliances with Cuba, with Maduro, and with communist China?

15 Admiral Holsey: Right now, sir from my standpoint, I 16 really work with the military. I think kind of a bigger DOD
17 or a bigger policy question. But I think our role as a 18 military organization, our alignment with the military 19 folks, we have to make sure that stays pretty tight. And 20 I'll continue to do that.

21 Senator Scott: Free speech is under assault in Brazil 22 after it banned the use of X, which is blatant censorship of 23 the Brazilian people by the Socialist Lula government. What 24 challenges do restrictive censorship policies like these 25 have in our ability to maintain productive U.S. military

1 relationships?

2 Admiral Holsey: I think right now, Senator, the 3 relationship we have with at least the military is pretty 4 solid. And they've supported us and we continue to support 5 them. Even when they visit us, they still talk about when 6 they supported us in World War II. I think they're there as 7 reliable, trusted partners from Brazil. I think we should 8 support them as well. Clearly, I think from a department of 9 state interagency standpoint, whole of government, we take a 10 look at policies restricting free speech.

11 Senator Scott: Admiral Holsey, many civilians work at 12 SOUTHCOM, and we have an election coming up around the 13 corner. If one of those civilians was found to have 14 violated the Hatch Act, how would you hold them accountable?

15 Admiral Holsey: I would hold them accountable, sir,

16 Senator Scott: What would you do?

17 Admiral Holsey: Well, have it investigated, and 18 properly.

19 Senator Scott: Could I ask both of you what you think 20 the importance of Homestead Air Force Base is?

21 Admiral Holsey: Yes, sir. Currently from a SOUTHCOM 22 perspective, it's a solid resource for us. We used it in 23 our recent Haiti operations. We've used it in exercises.
24 It's the home of our SOC South headquarters, which is our 25 headquarters component, head component for our compete PRC.

1 So, we like their location and what they're doing for us.

2 General Nordhaus: And Senator from my current position
3 for Conr 1st Air Force, certainly they do a roll down from 4 Homestead with the aerospace control alert. They're a 5 incredible unit down there with the 125th that flies out of 6 Homestead at times. So, it's very important to us.

7 Senator Scott: All right, thanks.

8 Admiral Holsey, do you need more assets? Going back to 9 what Senator King brought up, do you have the assets? I 10 mean, what surprises me is we spend all this money in the 11 Middle East and all over the world, and it seems like we 12 treat you guys like a stepchild when we have all these 13 issues going on in Latin America.

14 Admiral Holsey: So, Senator, we are a posture limited 15 theater. I think we're working with the assets we have.
16 But again, if confirmed, I'll take a look at our current 17 mission set and I'll certainly ask for more assets I'll need 18 going forward. Yes, sir.

19 Senator Scott: Thank you, Chairman.

20 Chairman Reed: Thank you, Senator Scott.

21 Senator Peters, please.

22 Senator Peters: Thank you, Mr. Chairman.

23 Thank you, gentlemen for being here and for all your 24 work and service to our country. We appreciate you.

25 General Nordhaus, I want to first off, just thank you.

1 Thank you for coming to the office yesterday we had an 2 opportunity to discuss a variety of issues. And I
3 appreciated that opportunity. And as we discussed at length 4 yesterday, Selfridge Air National Guard Base in Michigan
5 which I know you're very familiar with, and you've actually 6 flown in and out of as a fighter pilot, is the largest Air 7 National Guard base in the country.

8 It has very unique base operational mission 9 requirements and is the sole host requiring additional 10 personnel. And to be clear, it is like an active-duty base.
11 It's not a Air National Guard facility that shares a 12 civilian airfield and is a part of it. It is the airfield, 13 it is the base. It really is for all intents and purposes
14 an active-duty base. The only one in the Air National Guard 15 system.

16 But I'm very concerned about some potential personnel 17 decisions at Selfridge indicating that the base is going to 18 lose up to 117 full-time civilians, including 15 contracting 19 personnel. So, my question for you General is, if 20 confirmed, I understand you have the authority to pause 21 these cuts, and can I get your commitment that you will 22 pause these personnel cuts until an independent third-party
23 manpower study comparing Selfridge personnel needs to active 24 duty bases, not the other Air National Guard bases that are 25 adjacent to a civilian airfield and share those facilities,

1 but like an active duty base.

2 Would you commit to having that independent third-party
3 study so we're really truly comparing apples to apples, not 4 apples to oranges.

5 General Nordhaus: Senator, like you said, I'm from 6 Toledo. So, my time up in that area has been incredible and 7 to see Michigan and Selfridge. So, I've been there many 8 times. I understand the base very well. Certainly, want to 9 work with your team, if confirmed, to go back and forth to 10 make sure that we can get to right and what that looks like.
11 And if we can't get to an agreement what the appropriate 12 thing to do is, you certainly have my commitment to look at 13 a third party to make sure that we can look at all the 14 numbers to make sure that we meet mission to requirements 15 and take care of our people in the mission. And I know how 16 critical it is up in the state of Michigan.

17 Senator Peters: Well, that's wonderful. That's great.
18 I'll look forward, if confirmed, to working with you and 19 your commitment today that if necessary to have a third 20 party having a fresh set of eyes looking at it, you're open 21 to that?

22 General Nordhaus: Yes, sir. I'm definitely open to 23 that.

24 Senator Peters: Great. Thank you. Also, General 25 Nordhaus, last month more than 6,300 military personnel from

1 32 states as well as many key allies and partners gathered 2 in Michigan at the National All Domain War Fighting Center
3 during exercise Northern Strike. This exercise allows 4 participants to hone their expeditionary sustainment and 5 joint integrated fires training, and year after year more
6 and more units request to join this truly premier training
7 event in an amazing place in northern Michigan.

8 So, General, given this increasing demand how do you 9 envision expanding Northern Strike during your tender? And 10 will you commit to working with me to expand both active 11 duty as well as reserve components, as well as our allies 12 and partners, to be a presence at Northern Strike to fully 13 utilize this facility and its outstanding training 14 capabilities that exist there?

15 General Nordhaus: Senator, likewise, I've flown out of 16 Alpena many times. I understand the incredible airspace and 17 all the opportunities around there to include Grayling in 18 the other areas. Certainly, doing these large-scale
19 exercises are critical to how we get after Great Power
20 Competition. You have my commitment that I will do 21 everything I can to make sure that we stay after the 22 capabilities that we need to be interoperable and 23 integrative with our joint partners, allies, and partners, 24 and with the joint team.

25 Senator Peters: Great. Good to hear that, General.

1 My last question, General, as we discussed yesterday in my 2 office, I remain committed to securing a future fighter
3 replacement mission for our retiring A-10 fighter jets that 4 are currently at Selfridge. I know you share my concerns 5 about deactivating the fighter squadron and the resulting 6 degradation of Air Guard and Air Force readiness. As a 7 result of that, Selfridge Air Guard pilots have as you're 8 well aware, a wealth of experience, which will be lost.
9 It'll be lost if the Air Force does not recapitalize their 10 fighter mission.

11 So, my question for you, General, as an experienced 12 fighter pilot with over 3000 flight hours, can you share
13 with me and the committee, the value of Selfridge's Air 14 Guard fighter pilots and their experience, and how necessary
15 that is for the Total Force?

16 General Nordhaus: Senator, certainly when we see times 17 of pilot shortages and maintenance shortage and the 18 capabilities of fighters to meet the global demand from our 19 combatant commands, I want to work with General Alvin to 20 make sure that we get after the right fighter force 21 structure across the Air Force and the Air National Guard.

22 Senator Peters: Thank you, General. Thank you, Mr.
23 Chairman.

24 Chairman Reed: Thank you, Senator Peters.

25 Senator Tuberville, please.

1 Senator Tuberville: Thank you, Mr. Chairman.

2 Gentlemen, thanks for being here. Congratulations. Thanks
3 for your service and your lifetime of sacrifice. Both of 4 you done a great job.

5 General, do you have any numbers on recruiting in 6 National Guard over the last couple of years?

7 General Nordhaus: Senator, as I prepped for the 8 hearing to get with both the Army National Guard and the Air 9 National Guard, that was one of my questions was, where are 10 they at and this year for meeting and strength. It's my 11 understanding from them that they're both going to miss it 12 by roughly about 700 to 800. My understanding also is that 13 they've turned the corner coming out of the global pandemic
14 where they weren't able to get into schools and other things 15 where they normally recruited from. So they're starting to 16 see a great positivity there.

17 The Future Army Soldier Preparatory Course that the 18 Army has done is my understanding, the Army has brought in 19 25,000, and I believe 4,500 of those are going into the Army
20 National Guard, production recruiters, finding assistance, 21 ways to help the production recruiters get after recruiting 22 back in the schools, getting to junior colleges and those 23 things.

24 I'm committed, if confirmed, from my time at the 25 Readiness Center, where every day I was focused on

1 recruiting and retention, because we have to hire the best, 2 and then we have to organize and train them, equip them to 3 do our nation's capabilities for war time and peace time.

4 Senator Tuberville: Yeah, I think it's so important
5 because we're not reaching our goals and in full-time
6 military, and I think it's very important for us to, you 7 know, fill up or even exceed what we do in recruiting in 8 National Guard. Would you agree?

9 General Nordhaus: I would agree, Senator.

10 Senator Tuberville: Yeah. Thank you.

11 Admiral, I spent some time down in Panama last couple 12 of years, done a little research. We're fortunate to have a 13 new president there in Mulino. He thinks like we do. He 14 wants us and to have more presence there. With the, I don't 15 know what I've looked at and studied, probably one of the 16 most asinine decisions is us fully pulling out of the Panama 17 Canal. You know, since 1999, making that decision in the 18 early 80s just talking to people down there, they're hurting 19 economically. And when you're in that point, you're very 20 vulnerable to Russia, China.

21 China had their foothold in till we got this president
22 in down there, and we need to make a -- and I know you
23 understand this, we need to be able to hold onto the Panama 24 Canal, because as what we're hearing, if something were to 25 happen in the Pacific, how in the hell are we going to get

1 things to the Pacific especially from the East coast, if we 2 have to go all the way down to the bottom of South America
3 and not be able to go through the Panama Canal, if China 4 were to be able to block that thing off, or do something, 5 damage it, or whatever? You agree with that?

6 Admiral Holsey: Yes, Senator.

7 Senator Tuberville: The problem that they're having 8 down there again is, you being the deputy, how many people 9 do we actually have down in the Panama area that helps with 10 the Panamanians, with the canal? Or do we have any input at 11 all with it?

12 Admiral Holsey: Senator, we generally have our SFAB
13 Teams, which are really advising and assist teams down 14 there. But I was share with you just recently, we just 15 completed PANAMAX Exercise where we had hundreds of troops
16 working together, maritime assets, aviation assets, ground 17 assets. And again, that builds that interoperability and 18 that trust and competence to kind of take on malign actors.
19 So again, and plus it sends a strong signal that we're 20 working together as a team, so we have to continue to do 21 those type of actions.

22 Senator Tuberville: Yeah, I'd really love to see this 23 President come up and visit with our people in the White 24 House and the Pentagon because I think this is a huge 25 national security issue if we don't take care of it with

1 this president. Because it could change very quickly, you 2 know, if they have another regime change, their economy is 3 really, really struggling.

4 To another point, tell me about the cell drone that we 5 use in the Caribbean and in your AOR. Do you think that 6 they're adequate and they're doing the job that they need to 7 do?

8 Admiral Holsey: Yes, sir. I'd like to thank the Navy.
9 I think last year or a couple years, we got a chance to 10 bring cell drones to our hybrid fleet. It's a new process 11 by the Navy to actually get after with our limited assets.
12 And one thing the partners always ask for is maritime domain
13 awareness. So, these cell drones, we've been able to use 14 them from an ex experimental standpoint and operational, and 15 they're showing promise. So, I think we have to continue to 16 work and figure out how we can use them more so into our 17 scheme. But we do have them located throughout the AOR.
18 Yes, sir.

19 Senator Tuberville: Were they used when the Russians 20 brought their ships in and submarines?

21 Admiral Holsey: I can talk to you later, sir. But 22 it's a great opportunity. We've used them operationally.
23 Yes, sir.

24 Senator Tuberville: How many do we have in the 25 Caribbean? You know, do we have a dozen, two dozen?

1       Admiral Holsey: Less than a dozen, sir.

2       Senator Tuberville: Yeah. Okay. You need more?

3       Admiral Holsey: Yes, sir. We could use more. Yes,
4 sir.

5       Senator Tuberville: Thank you. Thank you, Mr.
6 Chairman.

7       Chairman Reed: Thank you, Senator Tuberville.

8       Senator Kelly, please.

9       Senator Kelly: Thank you, Mr. Chairman. Admiral, 10 General, congrats on your nominations.

11 General, Senator Peters asked a question about that was very 12 specific to Selfridge Air Force Base and recapitalization of 13 the fighter jets there. I read some language in the Fiscal 14 Year '25 Senate NDAA on fighter force preservation and 15 recapitalization, which would require the Secretary of the 16 Air Force to come up with a plan and then implement a plan 17 to sustain and recapitalize all 25 fighter squadrons in the 18 Air National Guard.

19       So, what do you think is the right balance between 20 modernization and keeping our fourth gen fighters?

21       General Nordhaus: Senator, from my time as being the 22 director of Ops for the National Guard and sitting on ops 23 steps it was great to see the capability not only across the 24 Air Force and in the National Guard, but the requirements
25 across the globe for fighter demand. If confirmed, I want

1 to work with General Alvin to make sure that we understand
2 what that right balance is between fourth gen and fifth gen
3 to make sure that we can be there not only for the combat
4 commands but also for Homeland Defense.

5 Senator Kelly: And what kind of weight do you give 6 like a conflict in the Western Pacific compared to European 7 theater when making these kinds of decisions?

8 General Nordhaus: Senator, as we look at China, 9 certainly they're trying to gain advantage in land, air,
10 sea, cyber, and space. And so over in the Indopacom Theater
11 China is our pacing threat. And so we want to make sure 12 that we have the right capabilities and fifth gen can be 13 balanced with fourth gen and other things that the Air Force
14 is working. So, once again, if confirmed, I want to work 15 with General Alvin to get after that problem set.

16 Senator Kelly: All right, thank you, General.

17 Admiral, we are in the midst of a global strategic 18 competition with both Russia and China. And China 19 especially, continues to influence a lot of effort there to 20 influence in the Western hemisphere, you know, economic 21 engagement that they use to gain access to natural resources 22 and influence in the politics of countries, especially in 23 Latin America and the Caribbean are having an effect. And 24 we continue to see inroads that China's making in South 25 America.

1           22 countries in SOUTHCOM have joined the Belt and Road
2 Initiative as China seeks to sign them up for some pretty 3 bad deals and then exploit them for their natural resources.
4 So, Admiral, how can we or you SOUTHCOM highlight to 5 countries in Latin America and South America about the 6 dangers of working with China?

7           Admiral Holsey: Senator, I share your concern. I 8 think we have to continue to expose malign activity as we 9 see it. That's done a lot by our engagement from the 10 diplomatic standpoint. When we do our military exercises, 11 our mill to mill exchanges we've been able to -- one thing 12 our partners are asking for us now is cyber. So, we have 13 been able to go and do joint combat command, cyber assess 14 team. So, we go and look at their systems and help them 15 out, cyber hygiene to ask for space support too.

16           So, again, I think it's really a whole of government 17 effort is kind of show the malign activity and make sure our 18 partners are aware of it, and we have to continue to do that 19 with speed.

20           Senator Kelly: Beyond cyber, can you talk a little bit
21 about the impact that foreign military sales in SOUTHCOM 22 have and the benefits of building strong relationships with 23 our partners in the area, in light of the fact that, you 24 know, China often goes in there and gives them some pretty 25 good deals on equipment that is not first rate.

1       Admiral Holsey: So, to be clear, our partnerships are 2 best determinants in theater. And again, our major lever as 3 a posture limited theater is a security operation. And so 4 via the foreign military sales process, foreign military 5 financing is a key enabler for us. But we have to deliver 6 faster though. And that's kind of the thing we've seen as 7 we kind of go forward as we're watching this process the 8 last year.

9       So, we're trying to find the ways to deliver quicker, 10 to get our partners meet them at a point of need, to get 11 them the assets they need. But again, they want the 12 maritime domain awareness, they want the cyber, they want 13 the patrol craft. So again, if we do that, then we have to 14 deliver so that PRC doesn't have a chance.

15       Senator Kelly: Is there one country in particular that 16 you're concerned about in, you know, their interest in 17 buying PRC military hardware?

18       Admiral Holsey: So, they have a lease -- Venezuela's 19 one for sure. Cuba's one for sure as well. But as far as 20 -- I was happy to see our designs get the F-16 vice, the JF-21 17. We did not want that in this theater. But again, 22 they're very subtle. They engage and they won't stop. So 23 we have to stay on top of it. Yes, sir.

24       Senator Kelly: Yeah, that JF-17 issue was one that 25 I've been tracking since I got here, and it is good to see

1 that they'll be flying F-16s instead. Better plane for them 2 too.

3 Thank you.

4 Chairman Reed: Thank you, Senator Kelly.

5 Senator Budd, please.

6 Senator Budd: Thank you, Mr. Chairman, and good to see 7 you all again. I enjoyed our conversations earlier this 8 week in my office.

9 The National Defense Strategy, it's clear that 10 protecting our homeland is our military's number one 11 priority. And one of the greatest threats to the security 12 of the American people is the crisis at the southern border.
13 Now as we talked about, although DOD is not the lead federal 14 agency responsible for securing the border or enforcing 15 immigration laws, if confirmed, you'll both play a critical 16 role in stemming the flow of illegal immigration and 17 combating drug cartels plaguing our country with fentanyl.

18 So General, if confirmed, you would oversee training
19 and mobilization of more than 2,500 National Guardsmen
20 supporting the Customs and Border Patrol at the Border.

21 Admiral, if confirmed, you would be responsible for 22 SOUTHCOM's efforts to combat transnational criminal 23 organizations profiting from human trafficking and drug 24 trafficking, and that ultimately harms our communities 25 across the country, including communities in my home state

1 of North Carolina.

2 So, my question is this, if confirmed, will you both 3 make these efforts a top priority? I'd appreciate a simple 4 yes or no answer. General?

5 General Nordhaus: Yes, Senator.

6 Senator Budd: Admiral?

7 Admiral Holsey: Yes, Senator.

8 Senator Budd: Thank you both.

9 General, in your advanced policy questions, you state that 10 you're proud of the National Guard support of the Border
11 mission. Their support of it, right? But yet you make it a 12 point that it doesn't add readiness value. Can you help me 13 understand that a little better?

14 General Nordhaus: Senator, first off, I'd like to 15 thank the committee for the funds that they provide for our 16 counter drug program. 2,500 of our folks are out there
17 doing and supporting across the United States, and in 2023, 18 $10 billion worth of illegal drugs were taken off the 19 street. So, thank you for the efforts on our counter drug 20 program.

21 As we go to the Southwest border, we want to make sure 22 that the readiness is not getting added. So, while they're 23 on the Southwest border, they're doing advise and assist,
24 monitoring, they're in support of Customs and Border Patrols 25 so that they can do their law enforcement along there.

1           They're not back home training for Great Power 2   Competition missions. They're not back home with their 3   families and their employers getting set up so that the next 4   time they're asked to deploy overseas for a combat role, 5   that they have that more spin for the National Guard. We've 6   seen very consistent that our service members continue to be 7   retained at a high level.

8   And so, they appreciate, the deploy, to dwell that they 9   have. But every time we send them to another location, it 10   does take them away from their families and from their 11   employers, and we can't use them to train for Great Power 12   Competition.

13           Senator Budd: I thank you for your leadership on this, 14   General. I think the part that's not said is the emphasis 15   and the need to have strict enforcement of our immigration 16   laws and fully allow border patrol to secure borders so that 17   the guardsmen under your watch and care can get back to 18   preparing for potential conflict with our adversaries.

19           Admiral, earlier this week in my office, we had a great 20   discussion regarding the lengthy and bureaucratic processes
21   that our allies and partners face in the Foreign Military 22   Sales process. So how does the current FMS process hamper 23   efforts with partners in places like Panama, Columbia, that 24   could help those countries stem the flow of migrants, 25   illegal migrants, or combat drug cartels?

1       Admiral Holsey: So, Senator, I understand your 2 concern, it's a very long process.

3       Senator Budd: Yes.

4       Admiral Holsey: There are a lot of different, as you 5 term, wickets to go through to get the, you know, letter of 6 acceptance to go back to the, whether it's a ship or a 7 service the company's going to go to. So, it takes a lot of 8 time and you want to generally make sure you're checking all 9 the boxes to make sure you get it right. That's part of the 10 -- it's just really bureaucracy, right?

11       So again, and partners are waiting for these tools, and 12 if they don't get them, then they look elsewhere. So right 13 now, what we're trying to do is working with EXIM Bank and 14 others to find other ways to deliver quicker. And so, 15 again, we had a chief of mission conference this past May.
16 Had a chance to bring in the EXIM Bank president, share that 17 story and how she's willing to help, and other avenues to go 18 after things outside the process.

19       And we're seeing some results that we might be able to 20 train and get better results over.

21       Senator Budd: Thank you for that. Would you mind 22 sharing with the committee the example of the maritime 23 patrol aircraft that took personal involvement from General
24 Richardson in order to get it delivered?

25       Admiral Holsey: Yeah. Yes, very briefly. I think the

1 aircraft had been stalled for over two years. And her first 2 visit with the President, he asked about that aircraft and 3 she came back and really got personally involved. And three 4 months later or so, the plane was delivered, and she was 5 able to go there and the president was actually there at the 6 reception along with some of his cabinet members. So it's a 7 great process if we get it to work.

8 Senator Budd: So, in closing, I'll ask you this if 9 confirmed, Admiral, do you commit to keep the committee 10 updated on similar issues so that we can work together to 11 improve the FMS process?

12 Admiral Holsey: Yes, Senator.

13 Senator Budd: Thank you.

14 Chairman Reed: Thank you, Senator Budd.

15 Senator Schmitt, please.

16 Senator Schmitt: Thank you, Mr. Chairman.

17 Admiral, I have some questions for you. Thank you for 18 being here. You authored the controversial, I would say, 19 Task Force One Navy Report. Is that right?

20 Admiral Holsey: Yes, I was part of the lead there, 21 yes.

22 Senator Schmitt: Okay. I want to ask you a few 23 questions about that. So, on page 33, it recommends 24 including a "Cultural framework questionnaire, tailored to 25 individual minority candidates for the Naval Academy." What

1 does that mean?

2 Admiral Holsey: So, I don't have that in front of me 3 right now, Senator, but I would share that basically what we 4 started looking at was a whole of person criteria, to look 5 at young folks and make sure we can open our apps here and 6 look for more talent and use every -- look at the talents of 7 all those willing to serve our nation.

8 Senator Schmitt: So, does that mean that there's a 9 different application based on somebody's race?

10 Admiral Holsey: No, Senator. And to be clear, we are 11 a war fighting organization. Our most fundamental duty is 12 support and defend the constitution and to support and make 13 sure we can take care of the safety and serve of American 14 people. That's what we're about. We're war fighters, 15 right? So that's what this process is about, to make sure 16 we can build readiness.

17 Senator Schmitt: Well, I would agree with that. On 18 page 40, I'm honestly trying to understand what some of 19 these terms mean and how it would apply. I don't think any 20 of this stuff has been implemented yet. Is that right?

21 Admiral Holsey: Most of the results from the Task 22 Force One Navy Report was rolled into the Culture of 23 Excellence campaign. If you look at the recommendations, 24 there are words like explore, review, and then the Navy took 25 a look at it and they decided what they wanted to use, what

1 they could help to build war fighters. And so basically the 2 Culture of Excellence, which is about war fighting, war 3 fighters in the foundation, is what's left over now, the 4 task force one effort.

5 Senator Schmitt: Okay. On page 40 of that, you 6 recommend that we consider the use of diversity stamps on 7 minority applications. What is a diversity stamp?

8 Admiral Holsey: Actually, that was from before. There 9 used to be a case of diversity stamps. I'm not sure if that 10 was the exact recommendation. I don't have in front of me 11 right now, so.

12 Senator Schmitt: Okay. I guess the idea then of 13 whether it's in there -- I want to make sure I understand 14 --what is the thinking behind a diversity stamp?

15 Admiral Holsey: So, Senator, I would share with you 16 that I'm reminded of the words E pluribus unum, out of many 17 one. That's who we are. We're a nation of immigrants.
18 We're a nation of people serving together. There's so many 19 of us today who are looking for opportunity to serve, and 20 they want to serve our nation and do what's best for all of 21 us.

22 And so, I think again, the Navy was looking away to 23 find out who people were. To be quite honest, after two 24 years in Carrier Strike Group Command, I was asked to lead 25 this effort. I did not ask for it. I didn't want to do it.

1 But I think I was selected to do it because of my character,
2 my reputation, my professional --

3 Senator Schmitt: Well, listen, I admire your career, 4 and I really do thank you for your service. I just, my 5 concern is, and this is not the first time I've asked on 6 this kind of topic, when people come before and you know
7 their name has been associated with some of these ideas, I 8 do think it's incredibly divisive, right? To be whether 9 it's a quota or it's a just dividing the room by immutable 10 characteristics.

11 I just don't think it has anything to do, or it has no 12 place in our military. I really don't. And I do think we 13 should be active in reaching out to you know, a broad group 14 of people to serve. I don't disagree with that at all.
15 But, you know, when there's things like recommendation 5.4, 16 which is to counter hate speech who decides? Who's the 17 arbiter of what's hate speech in this recommendation?

18 Admiral Holsey: That is decided by the Uniform Code of 19 Military Justice.

20 Senator Schmitt: Okay. Would referring to white 21 people as Bubba's be hate speech?

22 Admiral Holsey: I don't know about that.

23 Senator Schmitt: Well, that's part of the problem. I 24 mean, Derek Chollet, who's President Biden's nominee to be 25 under Secretary of Defense for policy, that's what he said

1 in 2020. So, I don't know, is he disqualified? Is that 2 hate speech or not hate speech? So, this is what I'm 3 getting at. Like, I don't understand what a lot of these 4 terms even mean, and certainly not how they would be 5 applied. And, you know, you authored this report, so I'm 6 honestly asking for some explanations about how this would 7 actually work.

8 Admiral Holsey: Again, I think Senator, the Navy took 9 the report. They looked at it and they'll decide how they 10 want to go forward with it. As I said before if anything
11 out of it they brought it to the Culture of Excellence 2.0
12 to look at how to build war fighters.

13 Senator Schmitt: Okay. Well, we may follow-up with 14 some additional questions on this because I don't know what 15 a quality assurance check means. I don't, like -- anyway I 16 appreciate your service. There's just a lot of questions 17 about this report that I have, which I hope you can 18 appreciate. I'm not alone in this. I think we need to do 19 everything we can to ensure that our armed services and our 20 military is the great meritocracy it should be.

21 And my concern is that you start dividing people up or 22 you know, this obsession with kind of with race is not good 23 for us. It's certainly not. I don't think gets us further 24 down the road. I think it's hurting recruiting. I firmly 25 believe that. So, I appreciate your time here today.

[The information referred to follows:]

[COMMITTEE INSERT]

1           Admiral Holsey: Thank you, Senator.

2           Chairman Reed: Thank you, Senator Schmitt.

3           Senator Sullivan, please.

4           Senator Sullivan: Thank you, Mr. Chairman. And 5 gentlemen, congratulations on your nomination, both of you
6 and your families as well. So appreciate families being 7 here, being supportive. As I told my wife and daughters, 8 you know, you might not be wearing a uniform, but you're 9 serving sometimes harder job than it is for the men and 10 women wearing a uniform. So, thank you.

11          General, I want to go into a little bit follow up on 12 our conversation yesterday in my office. I actually really 13 appreciated that. I thought it was a really good meeting.
14 But I want to begin with this just maybe a little bit of 15 lessons learned from this latest Air Guard initiative on the 16 PEC leveling, as they called it.

17          My own view is that there was a lot of mistakes that 18 happened, and I want to get your commitment to make sure 19 that you work with this committee and my office and me 20 directly to make sure those mistakes don't happen again.
21 The biggest mistake was the Guard at the highest levels 22 didn't check in with the joint force on, "Hmm, is this 23 initiative we're undertaking going to impact the readiness 24 of the joint force?" That's number one.

25          Number two, didn't really kind of, at least as far as I

1 can tell, didn't check in with the committee. And then 2 number three, particularly as it relates to the great state
3 of Alaska and our incredible guardsmen there, didn't check
4 in with the NORTHCOM commander, ALCOM commander saying, 5 "Hey, is this initiative going to impact what these men and 6 women do?"

7 So, what's your thought on that? We had a good 8 discussion. And can you commit to me to make sure that the 9 issues we talked about yesterday don't happen again? It was 10 a big mistake and, you know, a lot of young men and women 11 were making decisions in my state who had served in the 12 military for a long time to essentially get out. Not good.
13 So, can you comment on that and make that commitment to me,
14 sir?

15 General Nordhaus: Senator, I can make that commitment
16 to you. Communication transparency, I think is the hallmark 17 to make sure that we get out to all the stakeholders and 18 understand points of view from each side. And then we need 19 to communicate that up and back and make sure that we 20 understand any of the implications like you talked about.
21 So, you have my commitment, if confirmed, to review this in 22 whole and to make sure that I communicate back to this 23 committee as required.

24 Senator Sullivan: And to check in with the joint 25 force, the active-duty force, correct?

1           General Nordhaus: Yeah, absolutely Senator. And 2   that's what I meant by all the stakeholders. So I'm talking 3   about combatant commands, MAG comms, the Air Force.

4           Senator Sullivan: Good. Did you hear what happened
5   yesterday in the NORAD region of Alaska last night?

6           General Nordhaus: Yes sir. And I was on, on my 7   systems and talking back and forth with General Moore.

8           Senator Sullivan: Okay, good. Just for the chairman's 9   knowledge and this committee's knowledge, we had another 10   Russian bear bomber incursion into the Alaska ADIZ last 11   night. this is in addition to on July 24th, we had a joint 12   Chinese Russian strategic bomber task force entered the 13   Alaska ADIZ. That's the first time anywhere in American 14   airspace ever that that's happened. That's an escalation 15   between our two biggest adversaries.

16           Last August, we had a joint Chinese, Russian naval task 17   force of 12 ships -- Admiral, I'm sure you're aware of this 18   -- off the coast of Alaska. We already had a three-ship
19   Chinese Naval Task Force this summer, Russians Naval Task 20   Force this summer. And of course, the spy balloons that 21   were shot down February 10th of last year.

22           The reason I'm mentioning that General is, you know, 23   what unit made it happen that our joint force, both naval 24   but in particular the air assets, could go intercept these 25   Russian and Chinese bombers and send them back to their

1 communist countries and tell them, "Hey, stay out of our 2 ADIZ or maybe you'll get shot down next time." What unit 3 made that happen?

4 General Nordhaus: Sir, that'd be the 168th up at 5 Eielson with their KC 135s.

6 Senator Sullivan: And what kind of unit is that?

7 General Nordhaus: It's an Air National Guard unit,
8 sir.

9 Senator Sullivan: Right. So, some of the most 10 important missions that are happening in the world today, 11 front lines with Great Power Competition in Alaska are being 12 -- there's no way that mission could have happened without 13 the Air National Guard, correct?

14 General Nordhaus: That's correct, sir.

15 Senator Sullivan: The previous NORTHCOM commander mentioned 16 that these guard member units were operating not at like 17 varsity football, not at varsity college football, but at 18 pro Super Bowl level. That's how good they were. And all 19 of these missions that I just mentioned. Would you agree 20 with that?

21 General Nordhaus: Senator, I'm very proud of all the 22 service members in the Air National Guard and the Army
23 National Guard, and in the active forces that continue to do
24 this Great Power Competition to make sure we're always ready 25 and always there. Yes, Senator.

1           Senator Sullivan: You can just say they were operating 2 Super Bowl. No one's going to hit you up for that one.
3 Wouldn't you agree they were?

4           General Nordhaus: Oh, yes.

5           Senator Sullivan: 100 percent. I mean, look at their 6 missions. Really, really important.

7           General Nordhaus: Senator, I've flown up in Alaska.
8 I've been up there multiple times. I was just there last 9 time in December. And yes, you have incredible airmen up in 10 Alaska in the 176th and the 168th.

11          Senator Sullivan: Let me conclude Mr. Chairman, with just 12 one final question. It's not really a question. It's more 13 of a gift to the two nominees. I was just in Korea on a 14 Code L. By the way, I want to compliment the President of 15 Korea, President Yoon. Whenever I've met with hi, the 16 number one thing he does -- I'm kind of a Korean War history
17 buff -- the number one thing he does is he always highlights
18 the heroic actions of American Korean War veterans who saved 19 their country, which they did.

20          Americans know the history of the Korean War. You 21 know, it's always called the Forgotten War. I hate that 22 phrase because it's kind of a pejorative phrase. The 23 President of Korea doesn't forget about it, right? Our 24 service members saved that country, and he acknowledges that 25 every time. I want to thank President Yoon again for his

1 acknowledgement of our Korean War veterans, you know, we 2 don't have a lot left.

3 I have a book, one of my favorite books is called, This 4 Kind of War. Have either of you read it? Have you read it, 5 General?

6 General Nordhaus: No, sir.

7 Senator Sullivan: Have you read it, Admiral?

8 Admiral Holsey: Yes, sir.

9 Senator Sullivan: You have?

10 Admiral Holsey: Yes.

11 Senator Sullivan: And I'm going to give you, I'm going 12 to give you a copy anyways. I always give this to our 13 nominees. The reason I do, this is a really good book.
14 It's about the Korean War. Most of your peers at the four-15 star level general will have read it. And what it describes 16 though, it describes America, World War II, at the end of 17 World War II, we had the, the fiercest, most lethal military 18 in the history of the world, literally, that's not an 19 exaggeration.

20 By 1950, we had a military that couldn't stop a peasant 21 army from invading South Korea. And it goes into why we 22 lacked readiness. It was uniform and civilian leaders in 23 our military who made horrible decisions. And in the summer
24 of 1950, thousands of young Americans, mostly soldiers, paid 25 the ultimate sacrifice because the leadership of our country

1 at the highest levels of DOD failed.

2 So, I'm going to give this to both of you. I highly 3 recommend you read it and Admiral, you know, you might want 4 to skim it or just put it on your bookshelf. But 5 congratulations to both of you. And these are really 6 important positions. And I'm going to follow up with some 7 questions for the record for both of you.

8 Thank you, Mr. Chairman.

1 Chairman Reed: Thank you, Senator Sullivan.

2 Gentlemen, thank you for your testimony. Look forward 3 to your confirmations, that we will try to do it with some 4 diligence and speed. Thank you very much and thank you 5 family also.

6 General Nordhaus: Thank you, Chairman.

7 Admiral Holsey: Thank you, Chairman.

8 Chairman Reed: Hearing adjourned.
